HR business partnering has becoming more popular as organisations become people-focused and HR business partners are expected to work closely with their organisation's senior management leaders in order to support the overall aims of the organization.

As compared to the HR Generalists who are more focus on administration and compliance, HR Business Partners (HRBPs) see themselves as equal partners with their business leaders in driving success and they consistently make contribution to overall business strategy and performance.

This Certified Human Resource Business Partner qualification course consists of eight modules (8 days) and is designed to train and certify participants who need to develop the key skills and competencies of a strategic HR business partner.
