Question - Hiring Foreigners Not Based in Singapore

Dear HR Practitioners,

Would like to find out the common practise in the market for hiring foreigner who is not in Singapore.

Would the company provide any relocation package?

If your company do, what items are being covered?

Thank you.

Compensation and Benefits Management Workshop

- 14 & 15 July 2016 (20th Run)

An efficient Compensation and Benefits management system is necessary for every company to attract, motivate and retain employees. Yet companies are often challenged to maintain a compensation system that balances internal equity with external competitiveness and is also aligned to the total strategic intent of the organisation.

Upon completion, participants will learn and share experiences on the importance of the need to maintain strong principles in Compensation Management and the impact of internal and external influences that could shift your ideal state. The question is “how much is too much”?
