Question - Salary for Graduating University Student

Dear All,

If we employ an NUS nursing student who will be graduating in July 2016, for a 2 months' attachment Jun-Jul 2016, what is the salary range like?

Should we employ her with remuneration as a normal full-time employee (but she will only graduate in Jul 2016), or with remuneration as an attachment student?

We will only employ her for 2 months, as she has to serve a bond with SGH starting from August 2016 onwards.

Hope any of you can give some advice.

Thank you!

Yati

Compensation and Benefits Management Workshop

- 14 & 15 July 2016 (20th Run) - Confirming Soon!

An efficient Compensation and Benefits management system is necessary for every company to attract, motivate and retain employees. Yet companies are often challenged to maintain a compensation system that balances internal equity with external competitiveness and is also aligned to the total strategic intent of the organisation.

Upon completion, participants will learn and share experiences on the importance of the need to maintain strong principles in Compensation Management and the impact of internal and external influences that could shift your ideal state. The question is “how much is too much”?
